GREAT BALL PLAYERS-USA

WHO WE ARE!

The Great Ball Players-USA is a concept that means much more than a group of people belonging to the same organization. It implies a deeper and more meaningful connection. In our case, it refers to members who have mutual obligations and have undergone shared ordeals designed to initiate us into brotherhood/sisterhood commitment. In the eyes of Great Ball Players-USA - we are brothers/sisters' bond to shared principles - loyalty, beneficence, integrity, respect, mutual support for one another. Moreover, we remain loyal to defending each other and in locked steps with brothers and sisters in the face of life challenges with courage and steadfastness.

Great Ball Players-USA, founded May 2016, is a 501 © (3) organization, building and rehabilitating basketball court in Monrovia, Liberia. We are a group of former athletes, fan and supporters of basketball, raising funds and working with local organizations in Liberia to clean, renovate existing courts, as well as building new courts. We endeavor to ensure that all children, regardless of place of birth or family income, have access to well-kept basketball courts, recreation, and education.

Our Mission

GBPUSA, the overall mission is to help enable a community environment where young people can interact through sports and meaningful recreational activities and at the same time acquire capacity building life skills that they can rely on while working toward a better future.

Isaac Vah Tukpah, Jr.

Isaac Vah Tukpah, Jr. is an entrepreneur, and strategic advisor with over two decades of experience leading initiatives across technology, finance, operations, and international development. Isaac is also a sports enthusiast with interests in basketball, soccer, tennis, and track and field.

He is the Chief Executive Officer of Lake Piso Solutions (LPS), a Liberian-owned geospatial and technology consultancy delivering geospatial intelligence, aerial imagery, industrial drone services, GIS, and remote sensing for government, development partners, and the private sector. He is also a managing partner in a joint venture, LMK Geospatial Services, that seeks to revolutionize infrastructure planning, aerial imagery, geospatial intelligence, land administration, and housing development in Liberia. He has guided major strategic planning efforts for national institutions including the Liberia Water and Sewer Corporation (LWSC) and other organizations.

Isaac is a founder and Chief Financial Officer of the Liberia Diaspora Equity Fund (LDEF)—an emerging investment vehicle mobilizing diaspora capital for scaling bankable, job-creating projects in Liberia—linking global investors with local opportunities and strengthening the pipeline for Small & Medium MEs and strategic sectors. He is the co-founder of Sustainable Development International (SDI), a company advancing climate-smart agriculture and renewable energy solutions. Isaac is also a program advisor to the Liberia Agriculture Value Chain Actors (LAVCA), an organization seeking to implement value addition as a staple in the Liberian agriculture sector. Beyond enterprise, Isaac is deeply engaged in civic work, including service as founder and chair of the Liberia Emergency & Disaster Relief Fund, advisor to Zogos We Care and YouthConnect, and as a former Vice President of Operations for Civics and Service International.

He holds an MBA from the University of Maryland and a B.S. in Economics from Cuttington University (Liberia). Isaac recently received his master's degree in economics at Rutgers University with a focus on dual sector economics. Isaac is a certified Project Management Professional with the Project Management Institute and has additional certifications in Scrum Mastership and Health Level 7 (HL7) Reference Information Model (RIM).

Rooted in Liberia's legacy and energized by the diaspora's purpose, Isaac's work bridges capital, technology, and capacity-building to deliver measurable impact for Liberia's institutions, businesses, communities, and citizens.

LEADERS MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THEIR PROFESSIONS AND COMMUNITIES

- Veteran Ahblawoe

The Old Timers Sports Association of Minnesota (OTSAM), also known as Veteran Ahblawoe, meaning, “We used to play”, is a Minnesota based Liberian men soccer and social organization. Founded in 2000, it is inspired by the love for soccer and the desire to foster peaceful co-existence among its members and within the communities and the State of Minnesota. Its current President is Mr. John Menyongar.

Veteran Ahblawoe promotes the awareness of health and fitness through soccer and other recreational and social activities. Some of the objectives of the organization are as follows:

- * To promote sports and recreational activities
- * To support and strengthen families.
- * To promote education, economic and social communities.
- * To empower the youth of the communities to live productive civic lives.
- * To maintain physical fitness and live healthy lives.

Florence Co. African Design

Florence Jartu, a Liberian native, has several years of experience in the Fashion industry, from modeling to retail sales to now running an up and functional business. She created a line brand entitled Florence and Co. African Design that utilizes materials that are robust and organic along with vibrant texture that reflects the diversity and rich history of Africa. The main message of her business is to demonstrate that every woman and man deserves to wear beautiful clothing to highlight the beauty of Africa. Established four years ago, F&C is passionate about supporting the locals in Burlington City as well as funding her “Florence Jartu Care Group Foundation” which was established to build a children’s library in Liberia. When you shop at the Florence & Co African Design boutique, a percentage of the proceeds go to support the 501 c3 foundation in Liberia.

Located at 313 High Street -Burlington City, South Jersey

JOLA HOUSE

Jola House is a social enterprise that empowers Liberian woman through skills development and entrepreneurship opportunities. Our commitment is to transform the lives of vulnerable Liberian women through skills development and entrepreneurship opportunities.

The mission of Jola House is to reduce economic inequality of women and youth by generating work opportunities and providing training in the design, production, marketing, and export of “Made in Liberia” products. Our vocational and business development training will increase the number of women who have their own source of income, thus contributing to their family, community, and society at large. At the end of our training program, women are able to secure employment at Jola House, other shops and factories, or start their own businesses.

The shop at Jola House is a one-stop marketplace showcasing Beautiful handmade products by artisan trained by the foundation and other makers in Liberia.
